

Everyday Hero Nomination Form

FRPA is looking to recognize individuals who make a positive difference in their community, whether in the lives of others, the environment, or another avenue. “Everyday Heroes” should be contributors to the field of Parks and Recreation such as employees, volunteers, advisory board members, or participants in our programs. If you know someone special who makes a difference (big or small), we want to celebrate them! Selected “Heroes” will be featured in upcoming FRPA publications and/or the FRPA Website.

All nominations will be reviewed by a panel.
